

Introduction to Computers Part 1

How Computers Work – 2 hours 16 minutes

Get a hands-on introduction to the personal and academic use of a microcomputer. This course includes a preview of computer hardware and software, and covers basic operating system commands, personal computer ethics, and both personal and academic applications in word processing, spreadsheets, and databases.